Its's the qualitative peak of the Isole e Olena, and it best presents the search for excellence that has always characterised the work of Isola e Olena, Cepparello is not a vineyard project but rather a project of selection of the best grapes from the best vines. Created for the first time in 1980. Cepparello is a blend of Sangiovese from different vineyards, selected by Paolo di Marchi on the basis of the ' the best exposure, elevation, soil, genetics and age'. Its ages for 18 months in French oak Barriques, new and old -in a ratio of one to two- with a further year of refining in a bottle. Cepparello is released each year on the 1st of April.
